

Figure S4. Ramachandran plot of the predicted KCNE2 protein structure generated using PROCHECK (SAVES v6.1). The majority of residues are located in favored and allowed regions (92.3%), indicating acceptable stereochemical quality and overall geometric plausibility of the predicted model.